

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Julia LaRoche was born October 13, 1913, in Ft. Pierre and later moved to Lower Brule where her father operated the community store; and,

WHEREAS, Julia was married in 1936 and moved to the Harrold area, and as love is the magic that transforms all things into beauty, Julia was blessed with five beautiful children; and,

WHEREAS, Enduring trials and struggles in order to gain knowledge and experience, Julia steadfastly maintained a loving attitude toward all her children; and,

WHEREAS, Julia has been a foster "mom" and "grandmom" to well over one hundred children during her years of foster parenting; and,

WHEREAS, To know the tasks and trials of other hearts and to adapt oneself to them gently and without ostentation is true wisdom; and,

WHEREAS, Julia's lifelong motto has been the proverb, "a sorrow shared is but half a trouble, but a joy that's shared is a joy made double"; and,

WHEREAS, In 1980, Julia married Everett Moore and moved to Highmore; and,

WHEREAS, Julia's friends, relatives and children will gather at a picnic to be held in honor of her retirement from foster parenting on July 11, 1984, in Highmore to say thank you:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 11, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I join Julia's many friends, relatives and children in paying special tribute to one who has touched the lives of so many with selfless love.
